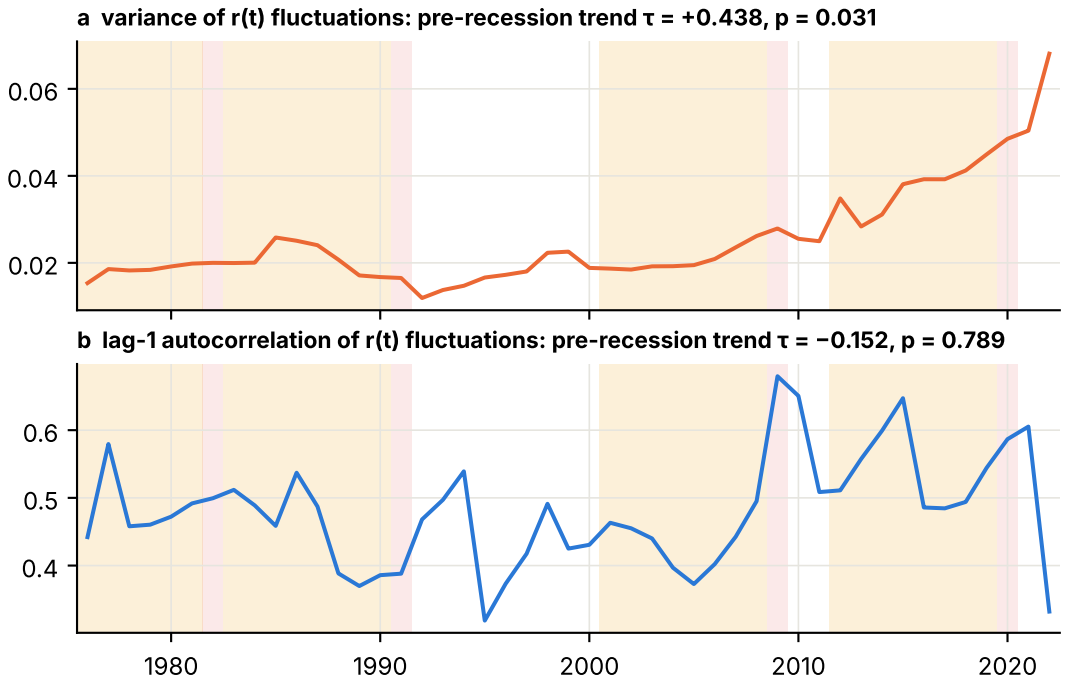
Early-warning tests before global recessions



Trailing 15-year windows of r(t) minus a Gaussian-smoothed trend; yellow: the 8 years before each recession (red). Kendall-type trend, one-sided upward, against 5,000 surrogates. Critical slowing down would raise both together.